

How laws are made --The House of Representatives description of the legislative process, including the differences between bills and resolutions, how a piece of legislation is introduced and the possible tracks it can take through Congress.